Peer review and present

Activity · Disruption Report · ~40 min

BEFORE YOU START

- ☐ Your report is built, verified, and refined
- ☐ You're paired with another country team
- ☐ Read theirs as a decision-maker would

What you'll do

Swap reports with another team and read theirs cold — the way someone who wasn't in the room will. Then give each other clear, useful feedback.

1 Swap and read

Pair up with another country team and swap reports. Read theirs as a fresh reader:

- Is the main message clear?
- Is it easy to follow?
- Would a decision-maker know what to do next?

2 Prepare feedback

For the report you reviewed, note:

- 2 things that work well
- 2 suggestions to improve

3 Present back

- Each team presents their section (~5 min)
- Share the key strengths and top suggestions for the report you reviewed

Group discussion: What worked well? What was challenging? Any feedback on the approach?

Check yourself

- You gave the other team 2 strengths + 2 suggestions
- You captured the feedback on your own report
- You know the one change you'll make next
